

Human Rights Council

Distr.: FIR
15 November 2019

Resolution

adopted by the Human Rights Council on 15 November 2019

Human Rights Council,

Considering that the Charter of the United Nations is based on the principles of the dignity and equality of all human beings and seeks, among other basic objectives, to achieve international cooperation in promoting and encouraging respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms for all without distinction as to race, sex, language or religion,

Considering that the Universal Declaration of Human Rights proclaims that all human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights and that everyone is entitled to all the rights and freedoms set out in the Declaration, without distinction of any kind, in particular as to sex, race or national origin,

Considering that the Universal Declaration of Human Rights proclaims further that all are equal before the law and are entitled without any discrimination to equal protection of the law and that all are entitled to equal protection against any discrimination and against any incitement to such discrimination,

Taking into account the other resolutions adopted by the General Assembly and the international instruments adopted by the specialized agencies, in particular the International Labor Organization and the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, in the field of discrimination,

Convinced that all forms of discrimination and, still more so, governmental policies based on the prejudice of sort of superiority or on hatred, besides constituting a violation of fundamental human rights, tend to jeopardize friendly relations among peoples, co-operation between nations and international peace and security,

1. Encourages establishing certain preferential tax treatment for entities employing a certain percent a certain percent of people with physical disabilities,

2. Urges the conduct of anti-discrimination examination in the process of developing legislation on the basis of the existing in the UN legislative framework,

3. Establishes single admission campaign in all educational institutions if one does not exist for all people without regard to race and nationality and physical abilities of people,

4. Affirms the necessity of adopting national and international measures to that end, including teaching, education and information, in order to secure the universal and effective recognition and observance of the principles set forth below,

5. Encourages volunteering projects, financed by international funds and the government, having a main goal is to organize communications between different nations.